Pastor Rev. Stephen G. Reynolds, Sr. come to Portland at six years of age with his father Rev. James R. Reynolds, Sr. For over 40 years he worked side by side with his father at Deliverance Center and its various ministries. In 2012, Rev. Stephen Reynolds, Sr. was honored to take the pastor-ship at Deliverance Center.

The late Rev. James R. Reynolds, Sr., founded the Deliverance Center in 1967, with the aid of several volunteers. In time, Rev. Reynolds' own family members have become a part of daily functions at the Deliverance Center along with several very dedicated volunteers.

Initially, the Deliverance Center helped and worked for the transformation of alcoholics and drug addicts. This focus is especially seen in its name, as being a place of deliverance from alcoholism or drug addiction.

The Deliverance Center was also established as a local church at that time.

Then, in 1969, it expanded to include an educational facility. The first of its schools, Deliverance Bible Institute, was established to train young adults for Christian service in a three-year course.

We are a Bible believing church located off the I-295 Exit 5A ramp headed towards downtown Portland Maine.

“It is the
