Sunday Evening

Title: The Lord Calls and Recalls

Text: Matthew 4:18-25

“I guess they were makeshift Christians, but I didn’t know what shift they were on.”

“Jesus is real to me, I never will doubt Him or journey without Him for He is so real to me.”

“A man had broken into a home to rob it. He came into the master bedroom and threatened to shoot the man and him in the bed. What is your name? He asked the wife. She said, “Elizabeth.” This is your lucky day my mother’s name is Elizabeth. What is your name? He asked the husband. “Henry, but they call me Elizabeth.”

Faith in God will bring action.

“I don’t have to worry about busting my shirt sleeves when I double up.”

Exodus 2: God spared him a man.

“I’d rather wear out than rust out.”

“Evangelism is the hit and run ministry.”

Exodus 3 Moses got the shock of his life.

The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance.

Hard times work the vessel. Not much improvements are made in good times.

If you are going to be anything, be the real thing.

“

There are no Baptists, Methodists, Pentecostals in Heaven. So get beyond your title and get an experience with Jesus.”
